

October 21, 1999

Yael Karshon, Hebrew University, visiting MSRI

Hamiltonian group actions

Lie groups act on symplectic manifolds on many occasions: symmetries in classical mechanics, the 'orbit method' in the representation theory of Lie groups, and even the study of convex polytopes. We will concentrate on classification results for torus actions.